

ONE DAY CONFERENCE

Harnessing strengths to enable students to reach their full potential

INTRODUCTORY ADDRESS

Jac Van Velsen – WISA CEO

Steering the school wellbeing ship around into calmer waters

Maria Hart – WISA WA Manager

What WISA offers

KEYNOTE ADDRESSES

Dr Bret Hart

The determinants of the strengths that enable students to reach their full potential

Carolyn May

Building wellbeing capacity in schools through staff and leadership wellbeing

SKILL WORKSHOPS

1 Leadership Wellbeing – Paul Cahalan and Carolyn May WISA National Leadership Trainers

The critical importance of a school leadership team that has good wellbeing and how they resource wellbeing effectively in their school. This workshop provides a step by step process to effectively lead wellbeing in your school.

2 Achieving a whole school approach to wellbeing through simple strategies – Jac Van Velsen WISA CEO, Maria Hart Education Consultant

Working smarter not harder. Essential activities for developing a whole school approach to wellbeing to improve academic, social and educational outcomes.

3 Strategies for working with your most vulnerable students - displaying anger, withdrawal, non attenders, attitude plus, non engagers' – Mick Turner Doxa School

Learn simple strategies that transform your thinking and relationships with some of your most challenging or worrying students.

4 Safety in schools – Ros Pretlove WISA National Manager/Director

How do we ensure our schools are safe? A practical session exploring perceptions of feeling safe at school and investigating the views of students, staff and families.

WHO School Leaders, Wellbeing Coordinators, Teachers, School Psychologists, Counsellors, Social workers, Education Support Staff, Parents and Carers

WHEN Monday 5th September 2016
8.45am -3.30pm

WHERE Burswood On Swan, 1 Camfield Drive
Burswood WA

COST $295 Single Registration - Excluding GST
$990 School Team of 4 - Excluding GST

REGISTER NOW

TO REGISTER CONTACT

Linsey Hart linsey_hart@bigpond.com
0421 343 137

Maria Hart mariaed@hart-solutions.com.au
0414 841 023