

DonateLife WA

Young Writers Micro Fiction Competition

Young Writers Micro Fiction Competition Years 7–12

How to guide

- 1 Slip inside the mind of someone touched by organ donation, for example, someone who:
  - is waiting for a life-saving organ transplant
  - has just received the call saying an organ has been donated
  - has received a transplant which transformed their life, or,
  - followed their loved one's wish to donate their organs after they died.Imagine how you would feel and what you could tell the world about your experience.
- 2 Get creative by sourcing story ideas from the DonateLife website, including under school resources www.donatelife.gov.au/school-education.
DonateLife Book of Life
www.donatelife.gov.au/read-book-life, and
Writing for Life page
www.donatelife.gov.au/writing-life/wa.
- 3 Check your entry meets the rules/conditions at www.donatelife.gov.au/writing-life/wa.
- 4 Get writing on your work of micro fiction in 300 words or less.
- 5 You must include or attach a fully completed entry form to your entry.
- 6 Send your entries by email (preferred) or post by the closing date, Friday 21 September 2018.
Email: donatelife@health.wa.gov.au or
Post to: Young Writers Competition
DonateLife WA
PO Box 332
Northbridge WA 6865
Please include your name and entry's title at the top of the email message or include both on your typed or written entry.
- 7 Don't forget to keep a copy for yourself.
- 8 Indicate if English is your second language (ESL) which has its own category for judging.

We can't wait to read your entry. Good luck!

For more information

donatelife.gov.au/writing-life/wa

