6.4 An ordinary member has full voting rights and any other rights conferred on members by these rules or approved by resolution at a general meeting or determined by the committee.
6.5 An associate member has the rights referred to in rule 6.4 other than full voting rights.
6.6 The number of members of any class is not limited unless otherwise approved by resolution at a general meeting.
7. Eligibility for membership
7.1 Membership shall be open to any individual or organisation who:
7.1.1 Supports the Association's aims and objects and who agrees to be bound by this constitution.
7.1.2 The person is a natural person.
8. Applying for membership
8.1 For individual memberships (6.1.2 and 6.2.2): To apply to become a member of the association a person must submit a written application.
8.2 For organisational memberships (6.1.1 and 6.2.1): To apply to become a member of the association an employee, volunteer or owner (nominee) of the organisation must submit a written application.
8.3 The applicant must specify in the application the class of membership, if there is more than one, to which the application relates.

9. Dealing with membership applications

9.1 The committee must consider each application for membership of the Association and decide whether to accept or reject the application.
9.2 Subject to rule (9.3), the committee must consider applications in the order in which they are received by the Association.
9.3 The committee may delay its consideration of an application if the committee considers that any matter relating to the application needs to be clarified by the applicant or that the applicant needs to provide further information in support of the application.
9.4 The committee must not accept an application unless the applicant -
9.4.1 is eligible under rule 7; and
9.4.2 has applied under rule 8.
9.5 The committee may reject an application even if the applicant -
9.5.1 is eligible under rule 7; and
9.5.2 has applied under rule 8.
9.6 The committee must notify the applicant of the committee's decision to accept or reject the application as soon as practicable after making the decision.
9.7 If the committee rejects the application, the committee is not required to give the applicant its reasons for doing so.

10. Becoming a member

An applicant for membership of the Association becomes a member when - 10.1 the committee accepts the application; and 10.2 the applicant pays any membership fees payable to the Association under rule 14.

11. When membership ceases

11.1 A person ceases to be a member when any of the following takes place -
11.1.1 for a member who is an individual, the individual dies;
11.1.2 for a member who is an organisation, the organisation is wound up;
11.1.3 the person resigns from the Association under rule 12;
11.1.4 the person is expelled from the Association under rule 17;
11.1.5 the person ceases to be a member under rule (14.4).
11.2 The secretary must keep a record, for at least one year after a person ceases to be a member, of -
11.2.1 the date on which the person ceased to be a member; and 11.2.2 the reason why the person ceased to be a member.

12 Resignation
12.1 An individual member may resign from membership of the Association by giving written notice of the resignation to the secretary.
12.2 An organisation member may resign from membership of the Association by giving written notice of the resignation to the secretary from the organisation nominee.
12.3 The resignation takes effect -
12.3.1 when the secretary receives the notice; or 12.3.2 if a later time is stated in the notice, at that later time.
12.4 A person or organisation who has resigned from membership of the Association remains liable for any fees that are owed to the Association (the owed amount) at the time of resignation.
12.5 The owed amount may be recovered by the Association in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Association.

The rights of a member are not transferable and end when membership ceases.

14 Membership fees

14.1 The committee must determine the entrance fee (if any) and the annual membership fee (if any) to be paid for membership of the Association.
14.2 The fees determined under rule (14.1) may be different for different classes of membership.
14.3 A member must pay the annual membership fee to the treasurer, or another person authorised by the committee to accept payments, by the date (the due date) determined by the committee.
14.4 If a member has not paid the annual membership fee within the period of 3 months after the due date, the member ceases to be a member on the expiry of that period.
14.5 If a person who has ceased to be a member under rule (14.4) offers to pay the annual membership fee after the period referred to in that rule has expired -
14.5.1 the committee may, at its discretion, accept that payment; and 14.5.2 if the payment is accepted, the person's membership is reinstated from the date the payment is accepted.

14 Register of members

15.1 The secretary, or another person authorised by the committee, is responsible for the requirements imposed on the Association under section 53 of the Act to maintain the register of members and record in that register any change in the membership of the Association.
15.2 The register of members must include:
15.2.1 The full name of each member (individual - 6.1.2, 6.2.2 and 6.2.3)
15.2.2 The full name of each nominee (organisation - 6.1.1 and 6.2.1)
15.2.3 A contact postal, residential or email address of each member 15.2.4 The class of membership held by the member; and 15.2.5 The date on which the person or organisation becomes a member
15.3 The register of members must be kept at the secretary's place of residence, or at another place determined by the committee.
15.4 A member who wishes to inspect the register of members must contact the secretary to make the necessary arrangements.
15.5 If -
15.5.1 a member inspecting the register of members wishes to make a copy of, or take an extract from, the register under section 54(2) of the Act; or 15.5.2 a member makes a written request under section 56(1) of the Act to be provided with a copy of the register of members, the committee may require the member to provide a statutory declaration setting out the purpose for which the copy or extract is required and declaring that the purpose is connected with the affairs of the Association.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION, DISPUTES AND MEDIATION

16 Term used: member

In this Part —
member, in relation to a member who is expelled from the Association, includes former member.

17 Suspension or expulsion

17.1 The committee may decide to suspend a member's membership or to expel a member from the Association if - 17.1.1 the member contravenes any of these rules; or 17.1.2 the member acts detrimentally to the interests of the Association.
17.2 The secretary must give the member written notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion at least 28 days before the committee meeting at which the proposal is to be considered by the committee.
17.3 The notice given to the member must state -
17.3.1 when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
17.3.2 the grounds on which the proposed suspension or expulsion is based; and 17.3.3 that the member, or the member's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion.
17.4 At the committee meeting, the committee must -
17.4.1 give the member, or the member's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion; and 17.4.2 give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
17.4.3 decide -
17.4.3.1 whether or not to suspend the member's membership and, if the decision is to suspend the membership, the period of suspension; or 17.4.3.2 whether or not to expel the member from the Association.
17.5 A decision of the committee to suspend the member's membership or to expel the member from the Association takes immediate effect.
17.6 The committee must give the member written notice of the committee's decision, and the reasons for the decision, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the decision is made.
17.7 A member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Committee's decision under rule (17.6), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 25.
17.8 If notice is given under rule (17.7), the member who gives the notice and the committee are the parties to the mediation.

18 Consequences of suspension

18.1 During the period a member's membership is suspended, the member:
18.1.1 loses any rights (including voting rights) arising as a result of membership; and 18.1.2 is not entitled to a refund, rebate, relief or credit for membership fees paid, or payable, to the Association.
18.2 When a member's membership is suspended, the secretary must record in the register of members:
18.2.1 that the member's membership is suspended; and 18.2.2 the date on which the suspension takes effect; and 18.2.3 the period of the suspension.
18.3 When the period of the suspension ends, the secretary must record in the register of members that the member's membership is no longer suspended.

19. Resolving disputes

Terms used

In this Division -
grievance procedure means the procedures set out in this Division; party to a dispute includes a person -
a. who is a party to the dispute; and
b. who ceases to be a member within 6 months before the dispute has come to the attention of each party to the dispute.

20. Application of Division

The procedure set out in this Division (the grievance procedure) applies to disputes:
20.1 between members; or 20.2 between one or more members and the Association.

21. Parties to attempt to resolve dispute

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.

22. How grievance procedure is started

22.1 If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 21, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the secretary of -
22.1 the parties to the dispute; and
22.2 the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
22.2 Within 28 days after the secretary is given the notice, a committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.
22.3 The secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.
22.4 The notice given to each party to the dispute must state -
22.4.1 when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
22.4.2 that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute.
22.5 If -
22.5.1 the dispute is between one or more members and the Association; and 22.5.2 any party to the dispute gives written notice to the secretary stating that the party 22.5.2.1 does not agree to the dispute being determined by the committee; and 22.5.2.2 requests the appointment of a mediator under rule 25, the committee must not determine the dispute.

23. Determination of dispute by committee

23.1 At the committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the committee must -
23.1.1 give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
23.1.2 give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
23.1.3 determine the dispute.
23.2 The committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.
23.3 A party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the committee's determination under rule (23.1.3), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 25.
23.4 If notice is given under rule (23.3), each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.

24. Mediation - Application of Division

24.1 This Division applies if written notice has been given to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator -
24.1.1 by a member under rule (17.7); or 24.1.2 by a party to a dispute under rule (22.5.2.2) or (23.3).
24.2 If this Division applies, a mediator must be chosen or appointed under rule 25.

25. Appointment of mediator

25.1 The mediator must be a person chosen -
25.1.1 if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a member under rule (17.7) - by agreement between the Member and the committee; or 25.1.2 if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a party to a dispute under rule (22.5.2.2) or (23.3) - by agreement between the parties to the dispute.
25.2 If there is no agreement for the purposes of rule (25.1.1) or rule 25.1.2), then, subject to rules (25.3) and (25.4), the committee must appoint the mediator.
25.3 The person appointed as mediator by the committee must be a person who acts as a mediator for another not-for-profit body, such as a community legal centre, if the appointment of a mediator was requested by -
25.3.1 a member under rule (17.7); or 25.3.2 a party to a dispute under rule (22.5.2.2); or 25.3.3 a party to a dispute under rule (23.3) and the dispute is between one or more members and the Association.
25.4 The person appointed as mediator by the committee may be a member or former member of the Association but must not - 25.4.1 have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or 25.4.2 be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.

26. Mediation process

26.1 The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
26.2 Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
26.3 In conducting the mediation, the mediator must - 26.3.1 give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and 26.3.2 allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and 26.3.3 ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
26.4 The mediator cannot determine the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
26.5 The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
26.6 The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.

27. If mediation results in decision to suspend or expel being revoked

If
27.1 mediation takes place because a member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association gives notice under rule (17.7); and 27.2 as the result of the mediation, the decision to suspend the member's membership or expel the member is revoked, that revocation does not affect the validity of any decision made at a committee meeting or general meeting during the period of suspension or expulsion.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

28. Powers of the committee

28.1 The committee members are the persons who, as the executive management committee of the Association, have the power to manage the affairs of the Association.
28.2 Subject to the Act, these rules, the by-laws (if any) and any resolution passed at a general meeting, the committee has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for the proper management of the affairs of the Association.
28.3 The committee must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Association complies with the Act, these rules and the by-laws (if any).
28.4 The executive committee may appoint and remove staff and determine their remuneration, including:
28.4.1. an Executive Officer; and 28.4.2 any other staff necessary for the operation of the association.

29. Composition of committee

29.1 The committee is to consist of:
29.1.1. the office holders of the association; and 29.1.2 at least one general committee member.
29.2 The following are the office holders of the Association -
29.2.1 the president;
29.2.2 the vice president;
29.2.3 the secretary;
29.2.4 the treasurer.
29.3 A person may be an office holder of the Association if the person is - 29.3.1 a nominee from an Ordinary Organisation Member under rule (6.1.1); or 29.3.2 an Ordinary Individual Member under rule (6.1.2); and 29.3.3 an individual who has reached 18 years of age.
29.4 A person may be a general committee member if the person is 29.4.1 an individual who has reached 18 years of age; and 29.3.2. an Ordinary Member or an Associate Member.
29.5 A person must not hold 2 or more of the offices mentioned in rule (29.2) at the same time.

30. Duties of the president

30.1 It is the duty of the president to consult with the secretary regarding the business to be conducted at each committee meeting and general meeting.
30.2 The president has the powers and duties relating to convening and presiding at committee meetings and presiding at general meetings provided for in these rules.
30.3 The president and in his or her absence the vice president shall preside at all general meetings and executive committee meetings. In the absence of both of these, a person elected by the meeting shall take the chair.

31. Duties of the secretary

The Secretary shall:
31.1 coordinate the correspondence of the Association;
31.2 consult with the chairperson regarding the business to be conducted at each committee meeting and general meeting;
31.3 prepare the notices required for meetings and for the business to be conducted at meetings;
31.4 unless another member is authorised by the committee to do so, maintain on behalf of the Association the register of members, and recording in the register any changes in the membership, as required under section 53(1) of the Act;
31.5 maintain on behalf of the Association an up-to-date copy of these rules, as required under section 35(1) of the Act;
31.6 unless another member is authorised by the committee to do so, maintain on behalf of the Association a record of committee members and other persons authorised to act on behalf of the Association, as required under section 58(2) of the Act;
31.7 ensure the safe custody of the books of the Association, other than the financial records, financial statements and financial reports, as applicable to the Association;
31.8 maintain full and accurate minutes of committee meetings and general meetings;
31.9 carry out any other duty given to the secretary under these rules or by the committee.

32. Duties of the treasurer

The Treasurer shall:
32.1 ensure that any amounts payable to the Association are collected and issuing receipts for those amounts in the Association's name;
32.2 ensure that any amounts paid to the Association are credited to the appropriate account of the Association, as directed by the committee;
32.3 ensure that any payments to be made by the Association that have been authorised by the committee or at a general meeting are made on time;
32.4 ensure that the Association complies with the relevant requirements of Part 5 of the Act;
32.5 ensure the safe custody of the Association's financial records, financial statements and financial reports, as applicable to the Association;
32.6 as a tier 1 association, coordinate the preparation of the Association's financial statements before their submission to the Association's annual general meeting;
32.7 provide any assistance required by an auditor or reviewer conducting an audit or review of the Association's financial statements or financial report under Part 5 Division 5 of the Act;
32.8 carry out any other duty given to the treasurer under these rules or by the committee.

33 How members become committee members

A member becomes a committee member if the member - 33.1 is elected to the committee at a general meeting; or 33.2 is appointed to the committee by the committee to fill a casual vacancy under rule 40 .

34 Nomination of committee members

34.1 At least 28 days prior to the annual general meeting, the secretary must send written notice to all the members - 34.1.1 calling for nominations for election to the committee; and 34.1.2 stating the date by which nominations must be received by the secretary to comply with rule (34.2).
34.2 A member who wishes to be considered for election to the committee at the annual general meeting must nominate for election by sending written notice of the nomination to the secretary at least 7 days before the annual general meeting.
34.3 The written notice must include a statement by another member in support of the nomination.
34.4 An eligible member may nominate for one specified position of office holder of the Association or to be an ordinary committee member.
34.5 Member eligibility is determined under rule (29.3) and (29.4).
34.6 A member whose nomination does not comply with this rule is not eligible for election to the committee unless the member is nominated under rule (35.2) or (36.2.2).

35 Election of office holders

35.1 At the annual general meeting, a separate election must be held for each position of office holder of the Association.
35.2 If there is no nomination for a position, the chairperson of the meeting may call for nominations from the ordinary members at the meeting.
35.3 If only one member has nominated for a position, the chairperson of the meeting must declare the Member elected to the position.
35.4 If more than one member has nominated for a position, the ordinary members at the meeting must vote in accordance with procedures that have been determined by the committee to decide who is to be elected to the position.
35.5 Each ordinary member present at the meeting may vote for one member who has nominated for the position.
35.6 A member who has nominated for the position may vote for himself or herself.
35.7 On the member's election, the new president of the Association may take over as the chairperson of the meeting.

36 Election of ordinary committee members

36.1 At the annual general meeting, the Association must decide by resolution the number of ordinary committee members (if any) to hold office for the next year.
36.2 If the number of members nominating for the position of ordinary committee member is not greater than the number to be elected, the chairperson of the meeting -
36.2.1 must declare each of those members to be elected to the position; and 36.2.2 may call for further nominations from the eligible ordinary members at the meeting to fill any positions remaining unfilled after the elections under rule (36.2.1).
36.3 If -
36.3.1 the number of members nominating for the position of ordinary committee member is greater than the number to be elected; or 36.3.2 the number of members nominating under rule (36.2.2) is greater than the number of positions remaining unfilled, the ordinary members at the meeting must vote in accordance with procedures that have been determined by the committee to decide the members who are to be elected to the position of ordinary committee member.
36.4 A member who has nominated for the position of ordinary committee member may vote in accordance with that nomination.

37 Term of office

37.1 The term of office of a committee member begins when the member - 37.1.1 is elected at an annual general meeting or under rule (38.3.2); or 37.1.2 is appointed to fill a casual vacancy under rule 40.
37.2 Subject to rule 39, a committee member holds office until the positions on the committee are declared vacant at the next annual general meeting.
37.3 A committee member may be re-elected.

38 Resignation and removal from office

38.1 A committee member may resign from the committee by written notice given to the secretary or, if the resigning member is the secretary, given to the president.
38.2 The resignation takes effect -
38.2.1 when the notice is received by the secretary or president; or 38.2.2 if a later time is stated in the notice, at the later time.
38.3 At a general meeting, the Association may by resolution 38.3.1 remove a committee member from office; and 38.3.2 elect a member who is eligible under rule (29.3) to fill the vacant position.
38.4 A committee member who is the subject of a proposed resolution under rule (38.3.1) may make written representations (of a reasonable length) to the secretary or chairperson and may ask that the representations be provided to the members.
38.5 The secretary or chairperson may give a copy of the representations to each member or, if they are not so given, the committee member may require them to be read out at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be considered.

39 When membership of committee ceases

A person ceases to be a committee member if the person -
39.1 dies or otherwise ceases to be a member; or 39.2 resigns from the committee or is removed from office under rule 38 ; or 39.3 becomes ineligible to accept an appointment or act as a committee member under section 39 of the Act;
39.4 becomes permanently unable to act as a committee member because of a mental or physical disability; or 39.5 fails to attend 3 consecutive committee meetings, of which the person has been given notice, without having notified the committee that the person will be unable to attend.

$40 \quad$ Filling casual vacancies

40.1 The committee may appoint a member who is eligible under rule (29.3) to fill a position on the committee that - 40.1.1 has become vacant under rule 39; or 40.1.2 was not filled by election at the most recent annual general meeting or under rule (38.3.2).
40.2 If the position of secretary becomes vacant, the committee must appoint a member who is eligible under rule (29.3) to fill the position within 14 days after the vacancy arises.
40.3 Subject to the requirement for a quorum under rule 47, the committee may continue to act despite any vacancy in its membership.
40.4 If there are fewer committee members than required for a quorum under rule 47, the committee may act only for the purpose of - 40.4.1 appointing committee members under this rule; or 40.4.2 convening a general meeting.

41 Validity of acts

The acts of a committee or subcommittee, or of a committee member or member of a subcommittee, are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the election, appointment or qualification of a committee member or member of a subcommittee.

42 Payments to committee members

42.1 In this rule committee member includes a member of a subcommittee.
42.2 A committee member is entitled to be paid out of the funds of the Association for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred under rule (5.3).

43 Committee meetings

43.1 The committee must meet at least 3 times in each year on the dates and at the times and places determined by the committee.
43.2 The date, time and place of the first committee meeting must be determined by the committee members as soon as practicable after the annual general meeting at which the committee members are elected.
43.3 Special committee meetings may be convened by the president or any 2 committee members.

44 Notice of committee meetings

44.1 Notice of each committee meeting must be given to each committee member at least 48 hours before the time of the meeting.
44.2 The notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting and must describe the general nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.
44.3 Unless rule (44.4) applies, the only business that may be conducted at the meeting is the business described in the notice.
44.4 Urgent business that has not been described in the notice may be conducted at the meeting if the committee members at the meeting unanimously agree to treat that business as urgent.

45 Procedure and order of business

45.1 The president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president must preside as chairperson of each committee meeting.
45.2 If the president and vice-president are absent or are unwilling to act as chairperson of a meeting, the committee members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chairperson of the meeting.
45.3 The procedure to be followed at a committee meeting must be determined from time to time by the committee.
45.4 The order of business at a committee meeting may be determined by the committee members at the meeting.
45.5 A member or other person who is not a committee member may attend a committee meeting if invited to do so by the committee.
45.6 A person invited under rule (45.5) to attend a committee meeting -
45.6.1 has no right to any agenda, minutes or other document circulated at the meeting; and 45.6.2 must not comment about any matter discussed at the meeting unless invited by the committee to do so; and 45.6.3 cannot vote on any matter that is to be decided at the meeting.

46 Use of technology to be present at committee meetings

46.1 The presence of a committee member at a committee meeting need not be by attendance in person but may be by that committee member and each other committee member at the meeting being simultaneously in contact by telephone or other means of instantaneous communication.
46.2 A member who participates in a committee meeting as allowed under rule (46.1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, the member is taken to have voted in person.

47 Quorum for committee meetings

47.1 Subject to rule (40.4), no business is to be conducted at a committee meeting unless a quorum is present.
47.2 For a committee meeting, three committee members constitutes a quorum unless otherwise provided in the Act.
47.3 No business is to be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present and if, within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting is to stand adjourned to a time and place chosen by those present on a simple majority vote.
47.4 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointing for the meeting, the meeting is considered to be dissolved.

48 Voting at committee meetings

48.1 Each committee member present at a committee meeting has one vote on any question arising at the meeting.
48.2 Where more than one committee member is from the same organisation who is a member under rule (6.1.1.) only one representative is eligible to cast a vote on any question arising at the meeting.
48.3 A motion is carried if a majority of the committee members present at the committee meeting vote in favour of the motion.
48.4 If the votes are divided equally on a question, the chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
48.5 A vote may take place by the committee members present indicating their agreement or disagreement or by a show of hands, unless the committee decides that a secret ballot is needed to determine a particular question.
48.6 If a secret ballot is needed, the chairperson of the meeting must decide how the ballot is to be conducted.

49 Minutes of committee meetings

49.1 The committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each committee meeting.
49.2 The minutes must record the following -
49.2.1 the names of the committee members present at the meeting;
49.2.2 the name of any person attending the meeting under rule (45.5)
49.2.3 the business considered at the meeting;
49.2.4 any motion on which a vote is taken at the meeting and the result of the vote.
49.3 The minutes of a committee meeting must be entered in the Association's minute book within 30 days after the meeting is held.
49.4 The chairperson must ensure that the minutes of a committee meeting are reviewed and signed as correct by -
49.4.1 the chairperson of the meeting; or
49.4.2 the chairperson of the next committee meeting.
49.5 When the minutes of a committee meeting have been signed as correct they are, until the contrary is proved, evidence that -
49.5.1 the meeting to which the minutes relate was duly convened and held; and
49.5.2 the matters recorded as having taken place at the meeting took place as recorded; and 49.5.3 any appointment purportedly made at the meeting was validly made.

50 Subcommittees

50.1 To help the committee in the conduct of the Association's business, the committee may, in writing, appoint one or more subcommittees.
50.2 A subcommittee may consist of the number of people, whether or not members, that the committee considers appropriate.
50.3 Subject to any directions given by the committee, a subcommittee may meet and conduct business as it considers appropriate.

GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

51 Annual general meeting

51.1 The committee must determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.
51.2 If it is proposed to hold the annual general meeting more than 6 months after the end of the Association's financial year, the secretary must apply to the Commissioner for permission under section 50 (3)(b) of the Act within 4 months after the end of the financial year.
51.3 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows -
51.3.1 to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since then if the minutes of that meeting have not yet been confirmed;
51.3.2 to receive and consider -
51.3.2.1 the committee's annual report on the Association's activities during the preceding financial year; and 51.3.2.2 as the Association is a tier 1 association, the financial statements of the Association for the preceding financial year presented under Part 5 of the Act; and 51.3.2.3 if required to be presented for consideration under Part 5 of the Act, a copy of the report of the review or auditor's report on the financial statements or financial report;
51.3.3 to elect the office holders of the Association and other committee members;
51.3.4 if applicable, to appoint or remove a reviewer or auditor of the Association in accordance with the Act;
51.3.5 to confirm or vary the entrance fees, subscriptions and other amounts (if any) to be paid by members.
51.4 Any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these rules may be conducted at the annual general meeting.

52 Special general meetings
52.1 The committee may convene a special general meeting.
52.2 The committee must convene a special general meeting if at least $20 \%$ of the members require a special general meeting to be convened.
52.3 The members requiring a special general meeting to be convened must - 52.3.1 make the requirement by written notice given to the secretary; and 52.3.2 state in the notice the business to be considered at the meeting; and 52.3.3 each sign the notice.
52.4 The special general meeting must be convened within 28 days after notice is given under rule (52.3.1).
52.5 If the committee does not convene a special general meeting within that 28 day period, the members making the requirement (or any of them) may convene the special general meeting.
52.6 A special general meeting convened by members under rule (52.5) - 52.6.1 must be held within 3 months after the date the original requirement was made; and 52.6.2 may only consider the business stated in the notice by which the requirement was made.
52.7 The Association must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members convening a special general meeting under rule (52.5).

53 Notice of general meetings

53.1 The secretary or, in the case of a special general meeting convened under rule (52.5), the members convening the meeting, must give to each member - 53.1.1 at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting; or 53.1.2 at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.
53.2 The notice must -
53.2.1 specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and 53.2.2 indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the meeting; and 53.2.3 if a special resolution is proposed -
53.2.3.1 set out the wording of the proposed resolution as required by section 51(4) of the Act; and 53.2.3.2 state that the resolution is intended to be proposed as a special resolution; and 53.2.3.3 comply with rule (54.7).

54 Proxies

54.1 Subject to rule (54.2), an ordinary member may appoint an individual who is an ordinary member as his or her proxy to vote and speak on his or her behalf at a general meeting.
54.2 An ordinary member may be appointed the proxy for not more than 5 other members.
54.3 The appointment of a proxy must be in writing and signed by the member making the appointment.
54.4 The member appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on his or her behalf.
54.5 If no instructions are given to the proxy, the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as the proxy sees fit.
54.6 If the committee has approved a form for the appointment of a proxy, the member may use that form or any other form -
54.6.1 that clearly identifies the person appointed as the member's proxy; and 54.6.2 that has been signed by the member.
54.7 Notice of a general meeting given to an ordinary member under rule 53 must - 54.7.1 state that the member may appoint an individual who is an ordinary member as a proxy for the meeting; and 54.7.2 include a copy of any form that the committee has approved for the appointment of a proxy.
54.8 A form appointing a proxy must be given to the secretary before the commencement of the general meeting for which the proxy is appointed.
54.9 A form appointing a proxy sent by post or electronically is of no effect unless it is received by the Association not later than 24 hours before the commencement of the meeting.

55 Use of technology to be present at general meetings

55.1 The presence of a member at a general meeting need not be by attendance in person but may be by that member and each other member at the meeting being simultaneously in contact by telephone or other means of instantaneous communication.
55.2 A member who participates in a general meeting as allowed under rule (55.1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, the member is taken to have voted in person.

56 Presiding member and quorum for general meetings

56.1 The president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president must preside as chairperson of each general meeting.
56.2 If the president or vice-president are absent or are unwilling to act as chairperson of a general meeting, the committee members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chairperson of the meeting.
56.3 No business is to be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present.
56.4 A quorum of a general meeting is $25 \%$ of members who qualify under rule (6.1.1) and (6.1.2).
56.5 Members who qualify under rule (6.1.1) shall have one vote at general meetings of the Association.
56.6 Members who qualify under rule (6.2.1) and (6.2.2) do not qualify to vote at general meetings of the Association.
56.7 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a general meeting -
56.7.1 in the case of a special general meeting - the meeting lapses; or 56.7.2 in the case of the annual general meeting - the meeting is adjourned to - 56.7.2.1 the same time and day in the following week; and 56.7.2.2 the same place, unless the chairperson specifies another place at the time of the adjournment or written notice of another place is given to the members before the day to which the meeting is adjourned.
56.8 If -
56.8.1 a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the commencement time of an annual general meeting held under rule (56.7.2); and 56.8 .2 at least 2 ordinary members are present at the meeting, those members present are taken to constitute a quorum.

57 Adjournment of general meeting

57.1 The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of a majority of the ordinary members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time at the same place or at another place.
57.2 Without limiting rule (57.1), a meeting may be adjourned -
57.2.1 if there is insufficient time to deal with the business at hand; or 57.2.2 to give the members more time to consider an item of business.
57.3 No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned meeting other than the business that remained unfinished when the meeting was adjourned.
57.4 Notice of the adjournment of a meeting under this rule is not required unless the meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, in which case notice of the meeting must be given in accordance with rule 53.

58 Voting at general meeting

58.1 On any question arising at a general meeting -
58.1.1 each ordinary member has one vote; and 58.1.2 ordinary members may vote personally or by proxy.
58.2 Except in the case of a special resolution, a motion is carried if a majority of the ordinary members present at a general meeting vote in favour of the motion.
58.3 If votes are divided equally on a question, the chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
58.4 If the question is whether or not to confirm the minutes of a previous general meeting, only members who were present at that meeting may vote.
58.5 For a person to be eligible to vote at a general meeting as an ordinary member, the ordinary member - 58.5.1 must have been an ordinary member at the time notice of the meeting was given under rule 53; and 58.5.2 must have paid any fee or other money payable to the Association by the member.

59 When special resolutions are required

59.1 A special resolution is required if it is proposed at a general meeting -
59.1.1 to affiliate the Association with another body; or 59.1.2 to request the Commissioner to apply to the State Administrative Tribunal under section 109 of the Act for the appointment of a statutory manager.
59.2 Rule (59.1) does not limit the matters in relation to which a special resolution may be proposed.

60 Determining whether resolution carried

60.1 In this rule -
poll means the process of voting in relation to a matter that is conducted in writing.
60.2 Subject to rule (60.4), the chairperson of a general meeting may, on the basis of general agreement or disagreement or by a show of hands, declare that a resolution has been -
60.2.1 carried; or
60.2.2 carried unanimously; or 60.2.3 carried by a particular majority; or 60.2.4 lost.
60.3 If the resolution is a special resolution, the declaration under rule (60.2) must identify the resolution as a special resolution.
60.4 If a poll is demanded on any question by the chairperson of the meeting or by at least 3 other ordinary members present in person or by proxy -
60.4.1 the poll must be taken at the meeting in the manner determined by the chairperson;
60.4.2 the chairperson must declare the determination of the resolution on the basis of the poll.
60.5 If a poll is demanded on the election of the chairperson or on a question of an adjournment, the poll must be taken immediately.
60.6 If a poll is demanded on any other question, the poll must be taken before the close of the meeting at a time determined by the chairperson.
60.7 A declaration under rule (60.2) or (60.4) must be entered in the minutes of the meeting, and the entry is, without proof of the voting in relation to the resolution, evidence of how the resolution was determined.

61 Minutes of general meeting

61.1 The secretary, or a person authorised by the committee from time to time, must take and keep minutes of each general meeting.
61.2 The minutes must record the business considered at the meeting, any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote.
61.3 In addition, the minutes of each annual general meeting must record - 61.3.1 the names of the ordinary members attending the meeting; and 61.3.2 any proxy forms given to the chairperson of the meeting under rule (54.8); and 61.3.3 the financial statements or financial report presented at the meeting, as referred to in rule (51.3.2.2); and
61.3.4 any report of the review or auditor's report on the financial statements or financial report presented at the meeting, as referred to in rule (51.3.2.3).
61.4 The minutes of a general meeting must be entered in the Association's minute book within 30 days after the meeting is held.
61.5 The chairperson must ensure that the minutes of a general meeting are reviewed and signed as correct by -
61.5.1 the chairperson of the meeting; or
61.5.2 the chairperson of the next general meeting.
61.6 When the minutes of a general meeting have been signed as correct they are, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proof that -
61.6.1 the meeting to which the minutes relate was duly convened and held; and 61.6.2 the matters recorded as having taken place at the meeting took place as recorded; and 61.6.3 any election or appointment purportedly made at the meeting was validly made.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

62 Source of funds

The funds of the Association may be derived from entrance fees, annual subscriptions, donations, fundraising activities, grants, interest and any other sources approved by the committee.

63 Control of funds

63.1 The Association must open an account in the name of the Association with a financial institution from which all expenditure of the Association is made and into which all funds received by the Association are deposited.
63.2 Subject to any restrictions imposed at a general meeting, the committee may approve expenditure on behalf of the Association.
63.3 The committee may authorise the treasurer to expend funds on behalf of the Association up to a specified limit without requiring approval from the committee for each item on which the funds are expended.
63.4 All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments of the Association must be signed by 2 committee members.
63.5 All funds of the Association must be deposited into the Association's account within 5 working days after their receipt.

64 Financial statements and financial reports

64.1 For each financial year, the committee must ensure that the requirements imposed on the Association under Part 5 of the Act relating to the financial statements or financial report of the Association are met.
64.2 Without limiting rule (64.1), those requirements include -
64.2.1 if the Association is a tier 1 association, the preparation of the financial statements; and 64.2.2 if the Association is a tier 2 association or tier 3 association, the preparation of the financial report; and
64.2.3 if required, the review or auditing of the financial statements or financial report, as applicable; and
64.2.4 the presentation to the annual general meeting of the financial statements or financial report, as applicable; and 64.2.5 if required, the presentation to the annual general meeting of the copy of the report of the review or auditor's report, as applicable, on the financial statements or financial report.

GENERAL MATTERS

65 By-laws

65.1 The Association may, by resolution at a general meeting, make, amend or revoke by-laws.
65.2 By-laws may -
65.2.1 provide for the rights and obligations that apply to any classes of associate membership approved under rule (6.2); and
65.2.2 impose restrictions on the committee's powers, including the power to dispose of the association's assets; and
65.2.3 impose requirements relating to the financial reporting and financial accountability of the association and the auditing of the association's accounts; and 65.2.4 provide for any other matter the association considers necessary or convenient to be dealt with in the by-laws.
65.3 A by-law is of no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Act, the regulations or these rules.
65.4 Without limiting rule (65.3), a by-law made for the purposes of rule (65.2.3) may only impose requirements on the Association that are additional to, and do not restrict, a requirement imposed on the Association under Part 5 of the Act.
65.5 At the request of a member, the Association must make a copy of the by-laws available for inspection by the member.
66.1 In this rule -
recorded means recorded in the register of members.
66.2 A notice or other document that is to be given to a member under these rules is taken not to have been given to the member unless it is in writing and -
66.2.1 delivered by hand to the recorded address of the member; or 66.2.2 sent by prepaid post to the recorded postal address of the member; or 66.2.3 sent by facsimile or electronic transmission to an appropriate recorded number or recorded electronic address of the member.

67 Custody of books and securities

67.1 Subject to rule (67.2), the books and any securities of the Association must be kept in the secretary's custody or under the secretary's control.
67.2 The financial records and, as applicable, the financial statements or financial reports of the Association must be kept in the treasurer's custody or under the treasurer's control.
67.3 Rules (67.1) and (67.2) have effect except as otherwise decided by the committee.
67.4 The books of the Association must be retained for at least 7 years.

68 Record of office holders

The record of committee members and other persons authorised to act on behalf of the Association that is required to be maintained under section 58(2) of the Act must be kept in the secretary's custody or under the secretary's control.

69 Inspection of records and documents

69.1 Rule (69.2) applies to a member who wants to inspect -
69.1.1 the register of members under section 54(1) of the Act; or 69.1.2 the record of the names and addresses of committee members, and other persons authorised to act on behalf of the Association, under section 58(3) of the Act; or 69.1.3 any other record or document of the association.
69.2 The member must contact the secretary to make the necessary arrangements for the inspection.
69.3 The inspection must be free of charge.
69.4 If the member wants to inspect a document that records the minutes of a committee meeting, the right to inspect that document is subject to any decision the committee has made about minutes of committee meetings generally, or the minutes of a specific committee meeting, being available for inspection by members.
69.5 The member may make a copy of or take an extract from a record or document referred to in rule (69.1.3) but does not have a right to remove the record or document for that purpose.
69.6 The member must not use or disclose information in a record or document referred to in rule (69.1.3) except for a purpose -
69.6.1 that is directly connected with the affairs of the Association; or 69.6.2 that is related to complying with a requirement of the Act.
70.1 A committee member must not publish, or cause to be published, any statement about the business conducted by the Association at a general meeting or committee meeting unless -
70.1.1 the committee member has been authorised to do so at a committee meeting; and 70.1.2 the authority given to the committee member has been recorded in the minutes of the committee meeting at which it was given.

71 Distribution of surplus property on cancellation of incorporation or winding up

71.1 In this rule -
surplus property, in relation to the Association, means property remaining after satisfaction of - 71.1.1 the debts and liabilities of the Association; and 71.1.2 the costs, charges and expenses of winding up or cancelling the incorporation of the Association, but does not include books relating to the management of the Association.
71.2 On the cancellation of the incorporation or the winding up of the Association, its surplus property must be distributed as determined by special resolution by reference to the persons mentioned in section 24(1) of the Act.

$72 \quad$ Alteration of rules

If the Association wants to alter or rescind any of these rules, or to make additional rules, the Association may do so only by special resolution and by otherwise complying with Part 3 Division 2 of the Act.
